The Old Town Triangle Hosts the Annual Student/Faculty Show

The show is up during the Old Town Art Fair

Art work by students and faculty who have attended or taught classes at the Old Town Art Center for classes this past year will be exhibiting their work at the center June 4 and 30 during the Old Town Art Fair. There will be a reception for the for the Student/Faculty show from 2 – 5 p.m., Sunday, June 5.

The work will be for sale during the fair with 10 percent of the proceeds going to the Old Town Triangle Association.

For additional information contact Leslie Wolfe at the Old Town Triangle office at 312-337-1938, or lwolfe@oldtowntriangle.com.

The Old Town Triangle Association is a community-based, not-for-profit organization dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for residents who live in an area of the City of Chicago bounded by North Avenue, Clark Street, and the former Ogden Avenue, known as “the Triangle”.

Each year, the association puts on the annual Old Town Art Fair during the second weekend of June. Now in its 62nd year, the fair has been selected as one of the top 10 national art fairs in the country by AmericanStyle Magazine. Proceeds from the fair help several non-profit organizations and school in the Triangle area through a grant program.
